DAY OF PRAYER FOR GAZA SUNDAY 24TH AUGUST.

The Irish Bishops are inviting all dioceses in Ireland to join in a Day of Prayer and Reflection for Gaza on Sunday 24th August.

- "Christ is not absent from Gaza. He is there, crucified in the wounded, buried under rubble and yet present in every act of mercy, every candle in the darkness, every hand extended to the suffering."*

Please join in 24 hours of prayer and reflection in your parish-es and homes on Sunday, 24 August. Light a candle in your family home or local parish church; attend Mass, spend time before the Blessed Sacrament; pray the Rosary; make some small personal penance or sacrifice, and on that day let the light of hope radiate out from the island of Ireland for peace, for Gaza and for the future of its people."

CHANGE OF MASS TIME NEXT WEEKEND

Mass in St Mary's Church next Sunday 10th August will be at the earlier time of 10am instead of 11:30am.

Who do you say that I am?

Jesus asks us ... and everyone

RELIGION is a thing to do

... and asks nothing of us.

It's a box-ticking exercise.

(it's usually only about a big day)

FAITH is a life to live ...

and asks everything of us.

It's a life-choosing surrender.

(it's always only about a big life)

"I'm not religious myself" is impossible ...
Everyone worships at some altar.

How come believing in 'nothing' is seen as more mature than believing in 'something'?

*The Rich Fool chose a pagan altar.
What do we choose?*
