DAY OF PRAYER FOR GAZA
SUNDAY 24TH AUGUST.

The Irish Bishops are inviting all dioceses in Ireland to join in a Day of Prayer and Reflection for Gaza on Sunday 24th August.

• "Christ is not absent from Gaza. He is there, crucified in the wounded, buried under rubble and yet present in every act of mercy, every candle in the darkness, every hand extended to the suffering."

Please join in 24 hours of prayer and reflection in your parishes and homes on Sunday, 24 August. Light a candle in your family home or local parish church; attend Mass, spend time before the Blessed Sacrament; pray the Rosary; make some small personal penance or sacrifice, and on that day let the light of hope radiate out from the island of Ireland for peace, for Gaza and for the future of its people."

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

There will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in St Mary's Church, St Michael's Church and the Oratory, Ballyliffin today, Sunday from 3-6pm. This is an opportunity for everyone to come and pray for Peace in Gaza. Please God our prayers will help the situation there.

HOLY HOUR

All are welcome to join us in prayer for Peace in Gaza in the Oratory, St Columbcille Village, Cleagh, today, Sunday from 4—5pm.

The "Prayer for the Release of Souls from Purgatory", is attributed to Saint Gertrude (1256 - 1302). She testifies that this prayer, and its promise, was revealed to her during a mystical encounter with the Risen Christ — in which He promised the release souls from Purgatory every time it is reverently prayed.

This is Religion

If this is your experience of Christian Faith ... someone has sold you a pup!

RELIGION

- A thing to do
- A box-ticking exercise
- A DEAD end

Events like Baptism, Confirmation and first Holy Communion WITH NO FOLLOW-UP is Religion. It means nothing to believers.

This is FAITH

FAITH

- A life to live
- The risk of love
- A LIFE end

Saint John says it is falling in love with the ONE who Loves us first. It means everything to believers.
