St John Paul II

The Great Mercy Pope

On Sunday, 30 April 2000 Pope John Paul II canonised Sister Maria Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun to whom Christ appeared to highlight His Divine Mercy. On that same day the pope established the Sunday after Easter as 'Divine Mercy Sunday'. This, he said, was the happiest day of his life. He died almost 5 years later of the eve of Divine Mercy Sunday 2005.

Feast Day: 22nd October

"Prayer can truly change your life, for it turns your attention away from yourself and directs your mind and your heart towards the Lord. If we look only at ourselves, with our own limitations and sins, we quickly give way to sadness and discouragement. But if we keep our eyes fixed on the Lord, then our hearts are filled with hope, our minds are washed in the light of truth, and we come to know the fullness of the Gospel with all its promise and life." – From Pope John Paul's Address to the Young People of New Orleans, (September 12, 1987).

Transcript of the Holy Father's Appeal for World Mission Sunday '25

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
On World Mission Sunday every year, the whole Church prays, united, particularly for missionaries and the fruitfulness of their apostolic labors. When I served as a missionary priest and then bishop in Peru, I saw first-hand how the faith, the prayer and the generosity shown on World Mission Sunday can transform entire communities.

I urge every Catholic parish in the world to take part in World Mission Sunday. Your prayers, your support will help spread the Gospel, provide for pastoral and catechetical programs, help to build new churches, and care for the health and educational needs of our brothers and sisters in mission territories.

This October 19th, as we reflect together on our baptismal call to be "missionaries of hope among the peoples," let us commit ourselves anew to the sweet and joyful task of bringing Christ Jesus our Hope to the ends of the earth. Thank you for everything you will do to help me help missionaries throughout the world. In our journey of faith, let us have no ambition other than to be servants to one another in the spirit of Jesus. Let us bear one another's burdens, bringing the gifts of healing, peace and justice to our troubled world. We ask God's every blessing on our community and on Christian Communities everywhere. May the offering of our prayers, sufferings and the support we give World Mission Sunday help us to fill the earth with God's love.

God bless you all!
